Dear Letters Editor,

I call on any of your readers who are in the Labour Party to sign this open letter to our National Executive Committee inviting expulsion for saying that Israel is a racist endeavour. So far 675 like me have joined in telling them to ditch the IHRA definition of anti-Semitism that they adopted on 4th Sept. This states that any who tell the truth about Israel's apartheid regime may now be deemed an anti-Semite by Labour HQ – readers can sign the petition online at www.tinyurl.com/israelihra and change the Labour Party for good. I've signed because...

Yours faithfully,

[your name, address and phone number]

You will need to paste in the email address of your letters editor into the "To..." field over the entry saying "'Letters Editor at my local paper".

You can get this from your local papers website or by buying a copy and looking at the letters page; to save time I have listed a few for you here:

The Glasgow Herald Letters	letters@theherald.co.uk
Edinburgh Evening News Letters	letters_en@edinburghnews.com
Scotsman letters	lettersts@scotsman.com
Independent letters	letters@independent.co.uk
Guardian letters	guardian.letters@theguardian.com
Private Eye letters	strokes@private-eye.co.uk
London Evening Standard letters	letters@standard.co.uk

Your letter will be copied to Jeremy Corbyn's office, and BCC to me. Thanks! Then just buy the paper for the next few days and hope to see your name in print...

If you're not using MS Outlook, the code generator might not work.

In that case you'll need to make the email yourself.
